Online course offer for 4EU+ students

Experience the 4EU+ virtual mobility!

In the winter semester 2021, the University of Milan opens 31 courses to students of the five other 4EU+ member universities: Charles University, Heidelberg University, Sorbonne University, University of Copenhagen and University of Warsaw. If you are interested in taking one or more courses from the offer, don't hesitate to apply by the indicated deadline. The number of places is limited.

Enrolment step by step

Browse the University of Milan online course catalogue

Go through the online catalogue to read the course descriptions and get an overview of the courses offered. Please pay attention to the course starting dates.

Important:

- ✓ Please check the prerequisites of the course you would like to attend before enrolling.
- ✓ Please note: the start dates of UM online courses may not correspond with the start of the teaching period at your home institution.
- ✓ Please check with an adviser at your home institution whether the course you have selected will be recognised in your programme as a core, optional or elective course. If the course cannot be recognised as part of your degree programme, you can still take it as a form of extracurricular activity.
